Such being the facts in the case, what can the Know-Nothings in the South gain by running Mr. Fillmore! We answer, the only thing which they can do, is to divide the strength of the South. They may possibly get one or two Southern States, and in that event, should the Democrats be un-

While we are free to admit that we believe the editor of the Journal and most of his Northern and emancipation friends in Kentucky are desirous of aiding Fremont in the event that they cannot elect Fillmore, we nevertheless think that even the great majority of our opponents would consider such a result as a great calamity to the country. Believing that they have not looked at this subject in the light which they should, we most earnestly appeal to them to give the sulject serious and careful consideration .-No Presidential election since the origin of our povernment ever had connected with it such unghty results. (For the Daily Louisville Times.) EDITORS TIMES :- This has truly been a galy day with the Know-Nothings at this place. For some time it had been announced that a pole or sometime it had been announced that a pole or two would be reared by that party on this day, and that the eyes of their understandings were to be greatly enlightend by Capt. Rosseau, of your city. When the morning came the canuon boomed, the hosts of Know-Nothings from adjacent places began to assemble at an early hour, as if rejoicing over a splendid victory in Kentucky Two poles were raised by them, one by the men and another by the boys, and two flags and streamers thrown to the breeze.

But the best of the story remains to be told.—
Capt. Ris eau made a speech, and in it he gave honesty. To prove this he professed to read an extract of a speech to foreigners delivered by a foreigner in the city of New York, during the hard winter of 1854-'.55, in which the speaker exhorted his countrymen to "exercise the wolf's right, and take what they could find to eat, re-gardless of the owner." Whether such a speech Bress staring them in the face.

A PICTURE OF DISUNION .- In his farewell address to his countrymen upon retiring from the Presidency, the patriot statesman and hero of the Hermitage said:

"What have you to gain by division and disnnion? Delude not yourselves with the hope that the breach, once made, would be afterwards easily repaired. If the Union is once severed, the separation will grow wider; and the controversies which are now debated and settled in the halls of the legislation will be tried in the field of battle and determined hy the sword .-Neither should you deceive yourself with the hope that the first line of separation would be the permanent one. the permanent one. * * * * Local interests would still be found there, and uncliastened ambition. And if the recollection of common dangers, in which the people of these United States have stood side by side against the common foe-the memory of victories won by their united valor—the prosperity and hap-piness they have enjoyed under the present con-stitution—if all these recollections and proofs of common interest are not strong enough to bind us together as one people, what tie will hold united the new divisions of empire when these bonds have been broken and this Union dissolved? The first line of separation would not last long; new fragments would be torn off, new leaders would soon be broken into a multitude of petty States, armed for mutual aggression-loaded with taxes to pay armles and leaders seeking aid against each other from foreign powers-in sulted and trampled upon by the nations of Europe—until, harassed with conflicts and humbled and dehased in spirit, they would be willing to submit to the dominion of any military ad-

Mr. Buchanau said, in the presence of all who had assembled—and they were from the North and the South the East and the West endorsed every part of it. He was explicit in his remarks on its Slavery features, saying that the Slavery issue was the absorbing element on the canovershadowing importance of that issue and in elected, he would make it the great aim of his Administration to settle the question upon such terms as should give peace and safety to the Union and security to the South. He spoke in terms of decided commendation of the Kansus bill, and as pointedly deprecated the unworthy efforts of sectional agitation to get up a national conflagration on that question. After the passage of the Compromise measures of 1850, the Kansas bill was, he said, neccessary to harmonize our legislation in reference to the territories, and he expressed his surprise that there should appear any where an organized opposition to the Kan-sas hill, after the general acquiescence which the whole country had expressed in the measure of proper policy of other nations. He was not opposed to territorial extension. All our acquisitions had been fairly and honorably made. ions had been fairly and honorably made. trons and been tarry and monotary made. Our recursities might require us to make other acquisitions. He regarded the acquisition of Cuba as very descrable now, and it was likely to become a national necessity. Whenever we could obtain the Island on fair, konorable terms, he was for taking it.

But, he added, it will be a terrible necessity that would induce me to sanction any movement that would bring reproach npon us, or tarnish the honor and glory of our beloved country. After the formal interview was over, Mr. Bu-After the formal interview was over, Mr. Buchanan said playfully, but in the presence of the whole audience; "If I can be instrumental in settling the slavery question upon the terms I have named, and then add Cuba to the Union, I shall, if President, be willing to give up the ghost and let Breckinridge take the government." Could there be a more noble ambition. You may well be prond of your early choice of a candidate, and congratulate yourself that no adverse influences ever moved you an inch from your stern purpose of ulate yourself that no adverse influences ever usored you an inch from your stern purpose of giving the great Penusylvanlan a steady, earnest and cordial support. In my judgment he is as worthy of Southern confidence and Southern votes as Mr. Calhoun ever was, and in saying this I do not mean to intimate that Mr. Buchanan has any sectional prejudices in our favor. I only mean to say that he has none against us, and that we may rely with absolute certainty on receiving full justice, according to the Constitution, at his hands.

Knowing your long, laborious and faithful ad thought it proper to address you this letter, to give you assurance that you had not mistaken your man, nor failed in the performance of a sacred and filial duty to the South. In doing so I violate no confidence.

STEAMER EMPIRE SUNK .- A private telegraph dispatch from Memphis states that the Empire. from Cairo bound for New Orleans, was sunk at Island 37 in the Mississippi. She had but little freight, which was saved. The boat is a total loss. She was owned by Capt. Underwood, her James Hennesy and Wm. Cornish, alias Hap commander, Mr. Palacio of this city, and probably pther parties. They purchased her about four months ago for $14,000. She was insured for $8,000 in New Albany.

THE ELECTIONS-DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES. -The route of the opposition to the Democracy in North Carolina appears to be as signal and compiete as in Arkansas. The majority fer Eragg; Democrat, for Governor, will be about tirelee thousand, being a Democratic gain of more than eleven thousand since the Presidential election. In Missouri, all but twenty two counties have been heard from, and Polk, Democrat, for Governor, has a majority of three thousand over Ewing, Know-Nothing, and about fifteen thonsand over Benton. The Intelligencer, the Know-Nothing organ at St. Lovis, thinks that Polk's majority will be about five thousand, but it will probably be more. All hail the national Democracy of Missouri and North Carolina.

Journal of Tuesday says:

Bencombe, which gives Bragg 125 majority—a gain of about 340. Burke, McDowell, and Cataw ba give Bragg about 900 gain. Caldwell, Carteret, Hartford, Green, Beaufort, Lincoln, Gastou, and Cleaveland give Democratic gains. Iredell gives Gilmer a gain of 134.

"For the legislature the gain a recovery of the legislature the gain and the second of the second

Gitmer a gain of 134.

"For the legislature the gain are even more marked than for governor. Buncombe and Burke have elected Democrata all through. We cannot begin to make an approximation to the majority in the legislature, but it must be very great.

"Heretofore, since the election, we have kept telegraphing and being telegraphed to, but noth-ing now can have any effect upon matters and there sucest to make them more as, and we now suppend that mode and await the mails for a while. We are acrously afraid that Bragg's majority will not reach fitteen thousand, perhaps not go much over ten thousand; there is no knowing. A little over half the counties have been heard from officially and unofficially, and if Bragg g dus is the same ratio in the remaining counties, his majority will come near, if it does not quite reach, twelve thousand."

Twelve furtified block-bouses have been erected at different pro-slavery points—one at Shawnee, one at Ossawatomie, one at Franklin, &c. They are supplied with amunition and garrisoned principally with Missonrians and Buford's men. on the night of the 12th a company of free State me attacked the fort at Franklin for the purpose of securing the arms, anticipating an attack threatened by the forces there.

The garrison was stronger than they had supposed. The fight lasted four hours. One free State man was killed and two seriously wounded. Three Missourians were wounded and none killed. The free State men captured the block house, took one cannon, 50 stand of arms, mostly rifles, and seized Lawrence May. No other house in Franklin was disturbed.

Mr. Jos. B. Sheridan, formerly of this city, has

Additional intelligence from Kansas this P. the military authorities for a dispersion of the sas City on the 15th, when it was resolved to send 2,000 men into the city Immediately. A meeting was held at Lexington on the 16th at which it was resolved to send a quota of men up to the scene of difficulties by the first boat. [Lines down East of Cincinnati.]

Doctor James Williams:—For severd years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia, but never have I been more distressingly affected with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering mc, for the time being, truly wretched. Forthnaiely, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nerrous depression left ine, and appetite, with mental and bodily leath, were fully restored. To methe cure seemed almost nit racipious, and my object in wedling to you are a hope that officer persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail the maly each your efficient remedy.
